BHAGAWAN'S DIVINE MESSAGE

The Vedas are inspired by the holy spirit of Divine Mercy; they seek to transmit to humanity the secrets of a happy life here and of Liberation forever. They reveal the essence of the Divine Glory. This treasure of Vedas was slighted and neglected as a result of the fascination for outlandish ways of life, but, since some years, the feeling of reverence and the readiness to repeat have appeared among the people. This Conference is itself a sign of revival. You are allotted the task of bringing once again to the homes of the people the message of Aathmic strength and Aathmic unity. The efforts you make are directed to bring this goal into the awareness of each person. Of course, there are in existence many organisations and societies engaged in distributing various cures for the 'spiritual' 'ills and therefore, a question may arise about the need for this additional institution. The need has arisen to emphasise the basic and essential discipline, which is practical and universal, as prescribed since ages for the revelation of the Divine in man. Bhaaratheeya Culture has to be fostered first. Every Indian has to learn and practise the spiritual science that the sages of this land have explored and discovered.

This Conference and the organisations you represent are attempts to cure that illness. The purpose is the same, whatever the name--Prashaanthi Vidwanmahaasabha, Sathya Sai Seva Samithi, Sathya Sai Seva Dhal, or Sathya Sai Bhaktha Mandali. The first aim is to foster and cultivate Bhaaratheeya Culture. Let its validity be examined through actual living, and one's own discovery of its values and communicated to others by those who have experienced the peace and joy derivable from it. Today, in the very land where this culture grew and flourished, immorality and corruption have destroyed happiness and contentment. Those who profess to lead the people are themselves led astray by the temptation to fall. So, the very first ideal you must keep in mind, when you start and run these organisations is: Do not crave for status or authority or position; do not allow any pomp, or show; do not compete for publicity or recognition or praise. Unity Consciousness is the heart-beat of India. Duty is God. Do it and be content. You may have yearnings towards self-aggrandizement and plans to fulfil them. But, you must subdue and destroy those desires.

Following My instructions without demur, is the best plan. While engaged in Service, it is wrong to yield to lower cravings or to follow one's own impetuosity. The Vedas declare that it is only by Thyaaga - renunciation, surrender, and submission - that immortality can be acquired. In the history of India, all the great movements and empires were motivated by spiritual undercurrents, not by political or economic stresses. It is only after the advent of the East India Company that politics and the struggle for political power predominated.

Sai organisations must promote faith in God. For the influence available from positions of authority, for acquiring and accumulating power, people today is finding fault with others, trying to publicise the faults in others. This state of things is an insult cast in the face of our culture. It springs from the craving for cheap popularity and temporary fame. Your organisations must endeavour to promote faith in God. If that base is absent, worship, Bhajan, Pooja, good works - all become meaningless automatic rituals, done under social compulsion. Inner transformation, which is the fruit, can be acquired only when these are done with faith. Faith can grow only from the root of inquiry. Faith is made firmer by inquiry. You must encourage inquiry by the members whom you contact and welcome their efforts to gain first-hand experience.

Man strives to provide himself with food, clothing and housing for the sake of the body; he must also provide himself with some things to keep the mind healthy and happy. It is the mind that conditions even the body. Train the mind to dwell on the inner equipment rather than the outer attractions. Use the mind to cleanse the feelings, impulses, attitudes, tendencies and levels of consciousness. Let it not accumulate dirt from the outer world and deposit them within itself. If it is attached to work (Pravrilhimaarga) the consequences of work get attached to it. Unattached work is the purest; it does not encumber the mind with elation or disappointment. 'I did it,' 'This is mine': these are the two fangs that make the individual poisonous. Pull out the fangs, the snake can be handled and played with as a pet.

These organisations must be vigilant to see that egoism and the sense of personal possession, pride or achievement, do not invade them. That is the goal to be kept in view. When an Organisation is started it has to lay down for itself certain rules and regulations. But our rules are of a different nature altogether. Our rules emphasise that members must first practise what they stand for. Whatever you desire others to do, you must first put into daily practice sincerely and with steadfastness. You must do Bhajan regularly and systematically, before you advise others about the efficacy of Bhajans. When you want to be honoured by others, you must learn to honour them first.

Service has become a word of common currency, but its value is very much reduced by the hypocrisy of the users. Really speaking, only those who are afflicted with agony, equal agony, at the sight of pain and suffering, distress or disease, have the right to offer service; for, they are not serving others, they are serving themselves, serving to remove as fast and as intelligently as they can, their own agony. Service to others is the medicine one needs to alleviate the distress which fills one at the sight of distress in another being. Feel that you are serving yourself, that you are curbing your own ego. Otherwise service heightens your self-esteem and develops a sense of superiority, which are both harmful spiritually. Food is the medicine for the illness of hunger; drink, for the illness of thirst; for the disease of bhavarogha (Birth-Death-Cycle), Bhagawan is the medicine; for the disease of desire, Jnanais the specific. For the disease of doubt, despair and hesitation, which are the occupational diseases of Saadhakas, the most effective remedy is paropakaara (doing good to others). For the major infection of ashaanthi (anxiety), the course of treatment is Bhajan. It is to provide these remedies to the sufferers that the organisation has to dedicate itself.

- Divine discourse (extracts), First All-India Conference of Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Seva Organisations, Madras, 21-4-1967.

"Silence has to be started with oneself; that is to say, one must talk less, and think more deliberately, more discriminatingly. One must try to empty the mind of impulses and prejudices and preferences. Thus, man must strive to reach down to his real nature or dharma, which is Divine, Dharmaswaruupa (righteousness personified)".

- Sri Sathya Sai Baba

The event unfolded with a mix of spiritual teachings, educational activities, creative workshops, and engaging games, providing a memorable experience for all the participants.

Activities

Sessions started with omkaram and offering our humble salutations at lotus feet of our beloved Bhagawan Baba. Then along with teachings of Bhagawan throughout the camp, students were engaged in a variety of activities designed to foster creativity, teamwork, and personal growth. The paper craft sessions encouraged artistic expression, with students crafting intricate designs and decorations.

Storytelling sessions brought traditional tales to life, captivating young minds and igniting their imaginations. Dramatic performances allowed students to showcase their theatrical talents, while a series of lively games promoted physical activity and camaraderie.

The organisers ensured that the students were well-nourished throughout the camp, providing a range of healthy snacks and refreshments. Protein-rich foods, refreshing buttermilk, chocolates, and biscuits were distributed, keeping the young participants energized and happy.

Parthi Yathras

Vedam chanting in Kulwant hall requires good quality and standard. To prepare Vedam chanters for Parthi Yathra is a big challenge. We need to conduct auditions and train the chanters for atleast 3 months to meet the required standards.

With the grace of Bhagavan we have successfully supported vedam chanting for Parthi Yathras of Srikakulam, Visakhapatnam, East Godavari, West Godavari and State Youth Parthi Yathra.

Three districts of Srikakulam, East and West Godavari were blessed to chant Vedam in divine presence for the first time in many years.

Vedam chanting during the above Parthi Yathras and Conferences received good appreciation and recognition for the quality and standard.

I humbly offer the above activities at the Lotus Feet our our beloved Bhagavan and seek His blessings with folded hands for continued grace and guidance in all the future activities.

My heartfelt thanks to our respected State President, Vice President, State Spiritual, State Youth coordinator, State Educational co-ordinator and State Service wing co-ordinator, State IT coordinator and all State office bearers, District Presidents, District IT coordinator and District office bearers for their wonderful support without which this wouldn't have been possible. Flood Seva (Late August – Early September 2024)

Beginning August 31, 2024, heavy monsoon rains caused the Budameru Rivulet and Krishna River to swell dramatically. Budameru's discharge reached ~35,000 cu ft/s—far exceeding its diversion capacity—leading to widespread flooding in Vijayawada from September 1–9.

Approximately 270,000 people in the city were affected, and around 35–45 lives were lost in NTR district.

As an immediate response, the Disaster Management Team of Sri Sathya Sai Seva Organisations – Andhra Pradesh swiftly launched Rescue and Relief operations in the flood-affected areas. Working in coordination with the NDRF and SDRF teams, our volunteers actively participated in rescuing stranded individuals. Utilizing innovative, man-made materials—including a makeshift boat constructed using wooden planks, tyres, and DM ropes—our teams successfully transported affected people to safer locations.

On September 12, the Sri Sathya Sai Central Trust and SSSSO distributed around 7,000 "Sri Sathya Sai Amrutha Kalasams"—essential food packs with rice, oil, and toiletries—reaching flood-affected families across four colonies in Vijayawada. The initiative was flagged off by Trust managing trustee R.J. Rathnakar, valued at ₹2.5 crore.

According to The Hans India:

- 600 Seva dal volunteers from SSSSO actively participated in relief on the ground.
- About 100 truck loads of relief items were home-delivered to needy households.
- The Managing Trustee and SSSSO members personally met Chief Minister Chandrababu Naidu and Minister Lokesh to report their extensive activities.

September 2024 Vijayawada floods were among the city's most severe in recent memory, overwhelming both natural waterways and existing infrastructure. In response, state and national disaster teams led rescue operations, while community-minded organizations like the Sri Sathya Sai Seva Organisation played a pivotal role in relief distribution, organizing volunteers, delivering essential supplies, and demonstrating the real-world legacy of Sathya Sai Baba's teachings on selfless service.

“At His Feet... In His Service... With His Love”

With the boundless grace and infinite love of our most Beloved Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba, the children, devotees, Balavikas students, volunteers, and active workers of Andhra Pradesh have been divinely chosen to be a part of His sacred mission. It is only by His Divine Sankalpa that we are drawn into His fold, nurtured by His love, and guided along the path of selfless service and spiritual transformation.

Dearest Swami, we offer our humble and heartfelt gratitude for every opportunity to serve, learn, and grow under Your protective gaze. We earnestly pray that You continue to shower Your unconditional love and blessings upon all of us, our families, and the entire world. May we forever remain sheltered under Your Divine umbrella, and may every thought, word, and deed of ours be worthy of Your mission.

Beloved Bhagawan, we surrender our time, energy, skills, and lives at Your Divine Lotus Feet. Kindly accept our devotion, purify our intentions, and make us worthy instruments of Your Divine Will.

We pray that this humble offering of service throughout the year pleases You, our Divine Master, and brings glory to Your name.
